Oh statistics,
You can even be used in linguistics.
You make me feel artistic
And sometimes go ballistic.

Oh statistics,
You have wonderful characteristics.
For many situations
We have accurate estimations.

Oh statistics,
You’re not just heuristics.
Whenever I need a hypothesis test
You’re the absolute best.

Oh statistics,
You’re sometimes unrealistic.
When the data is overfit
You really should not commit.

Oh statistics,
You are involved in mystics.
Within the realm of machine learning,
You are so discerning.

Oh statistics,
There will always be critics.
But you age like fine wine
And are oh so divine.
