

Copyright Permission Agreement for Scholarship@Claremont

I, BARRY JOSEPH WISHART (author or copyright owner's name) warrant that I have the authority to act on any copyright related matters for the work titled AN INTERAGENCY APPROACH TO REFORMING THE ADMINISTRATION OF FEDERAL GRANT-IN-AID PROGRAMS: A CASE STUDY OF THE INDIAN TASK FORCE OF THE WESTERN FEDERAL REGIONAL COUNCIL; dated 1975 and as such have the right to grant permission to digitize, republish and use the said work in all media now known or hereafter devised.

I grant to the Claremont Colleges Library the nonexclusive worldwide rights to digitize, preserve, publish, exhibit, and use the work in any way online or in print that furthers the educational, research and public service purposes of the Claremont Colleges Library and the Claremont Colleges.

NOTICE OF ORIGINAL WORK AND USE OF COPYRIGHT PROTECTED MATERIALS: If your work includes images, videos, music, data sets, or other accompanying material that is not original work by you, you must include permissions from original content provider or are asserting Fair Use in order to have the material included in the repository. If your work includes interviews, you must include a statement that you have permission from the interviewees to make their interviews public. For information about obtaining permissions and sample forms contact the Claremont Colleges Library staff.

This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of California. This Agreement expresses the complete understanding of the parties with respect to the subject matter and supersedes all prior representations and understandings.
