Slow chaos,
chain of good-bye embraces among exchanging dancers unwilling to depart.

Oases of quiet
are sprinkled in the pockets, vent of assurance that stable motion thrives.

The asteroids play the game.
Ousted by resonance,
some have retreated,
carving Kirkwood gaps behind.
Others will spin along the tori, until the Sun burns their breath.

Only a few will slide on whiskers to fade, eventually, into the dark, shy and uneasy,
like unspoken afterthoughts.
